CARRIER JAY COX INJURED

Pioneer and President of the Bird Study Club Has Mishap.

Carrier James W. Cox, of rural delivery No. 2, north of Salem, was badly hurt this morning when his horse ran away and overturned the cart, precipitating him to the ground. Cox had just started out on his route at 8 o'clock, and drove his horse up to the Pioneer fountain to drink, when the animal took fright, jumped to the side, overturning the cart and then dashed north along Winter street. Cox landed on his shoulders, and, while it is thought no bones are broken, the unfortunate carrier is believed to be in a serious condition from internal injuries. He was taken to his home by other carriers, who saw the accident, and attended by Dr. Robertson. The runaway was stopped by an employee of Edward's butcher shop some blocks from where he first started.

After a short trip to the groom's home in Siletz, they will make their home in Salem.

Suit Against Merger.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Guthrie, Okla., Feb. 25.—Governor Haskell last night sent a communication to Attorney-General West in which he ordered him to institute proceedings to dissolve an alleged merger between the Rock Island and the Frisco railroads in the new state.

The letter recites that the interests of the new roads are pooled under the same management, and they are in every sense competitive. Attorney-General West stated that he would immediately start the suit.

TERROR RULES PORTUGAL

(United Press Leased Wire.)

London, Feb. 25.—Dispatches from Lisbon, filtered through the rigid censorship in London, indicate that virtually a reign of terror exists at the Portuguese capital, where the Duke of Oporto, to all practical purposes, is acting as absolute dictator.

The queen mother is making preparations to transfer her residence to Spain, while the young king tacitly admits his own inability to rule under the present conditions.

Upon the Duke of Oporto, therefore, practically develops the task of ruling the kingdom. He has been given absolute command of all military forces, and even of the police. Arrests are made by scores, and no records made thereof. Suspects are being thrown into prison, and kept there with no opportunity to see friends or even members of their families. Many houses have been searched and their occupants imprisoned.

All signs point to a revolutionary outbreak. For this reason the British cruisers will remain in the Tagus, and the Spanish troops upon the frontier.

ANTI-CLERICAL ANARCHISTS

Chicago, Feb. 25.—Murder of the Rev. Leo Heinrichs, in Denver, as the priest stood at the altar administering holy communion, brought the startling accusations from Chicago priests today that anti-clerical agitation by a group of Italians has taken form in Chicago. The priests say emphatically that similar murders may be feared as the result of the propaganda carried on against priests under the guise of an anti-clerical club in this city.

Discovery of the agitation among Chicago Italians following the charges by the priests brought on an investigation by the police department, and important developments are expected, throwing light on the movements of the assassin while in Chicago.

AUTOS ON NEW YORK TO CHICAGO RUN.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Chicago, Feb. 25.—The Thomas Flyer, the American car in the New York to Paris race, left the snowy wastes of Northern Indiana this morning, and started to bump along the ties of the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern railroad on the last lap in the run to Chicago. It was expected that they would arrive here shortly after noon.

The French and Italian cars, which were stranded at New Carlisle, finally started today under their own power. The rain had changed the roads into sticky, slippery slush, making it hard for the cars to run. The farmers refused to give the foreigners a hand.

The Assembly Club—

Party at the Elks' hall tomorrow evening will not be a leap year party, as previously announced.

Kind Word for Jones.

(Jefferson Review.)
Hon. M. L. Jones of Brooks was in Jefferson Monday, looking after matters pertaining to his candidacy for county judge. Mr. Jones' boyhood and manhood have been passed in this county. He received the A. B. degree at the Willamette University in 1871, afterwards studying law and passing an examination before the supreme court. For the past 20 years he has been engaged in the general merchandise business and farming at Brooks. He is at present a large promoter of dairying. He is a heavy taxpayer and is in a position to give the office of county judge the same careful attention which he has always given his own business affairs.

GARRETT ASSAILS TAR

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Washington, Feb. 25.—The first stage of life the Republic's argument was prayer; second, praise and prejudice; third, prosperity. The third at an end. In the fourth what will the party be? We gentlemen, the birth of thought.

With these words Congressman Garrett, of Tennessee, today on the floor of the house against the dominant political He accused it of hypocrisy, and lary in the tariff issue.

"The period of prayer," declared, "covered the party's tions with the anti-slavery issue of the country. It clearly demonstrated that the influences in the party did not rap for the slavery question, loaders saw an opportunity to it. The praise and prejudice extended over two decades, when bloody shirt was the banner to heroic memories and prejudices of the Civil War.

"The third period—that of purity—has been working with force since 1893. It was in the riot that the Republicans covered with the people to preserve party through a protective tariff. Congressman Garrett said the ple must either deny the test of 15 years or assume the responsibility for the present financial ditions.
